This just a quick reminder that starting today we will be moving items from the Ward Corner location to the Ocean View location. The store in Norfolk will still be open today but not until 6p m

It will also probably be a bit of a mess. Over the next few days we will be getting all the stuff moved so before coming out to either store I would recommend calling ahead to confirm which location is actually open. Especially if you are playing in an event. The phone number is 757 502 8954.

The new address is:

Atlantis Games & Comics

9649 1st View St

Norfolk, Va 23503
